

Dentists Who have Practiced in Wasatch County

Dentists who have practiced in Heber include D. B. Witt who worked in the Salt Lake Dental Clinic until he felt he had enough experience and then came to Heber; a Dr. Sessions, not formally educated as a dentist, but also a product of the Salt Lake Dental Clinic; a Dr. Sabin who practiced from about 1904 to 1908 and was the first dentist in the valley with a diploma; Dr. C. F. Wherritt, a brother of Dr. W. R. Wherritt, who came to Heber in 1901 and then in 1904 moved to Kamas; Dr. H. R. Rhead, Dr. W. Leroy Mahoney, Dr. Francis Clayton Montgomery, Dr. Rex Albert Whiting, Dr. Glade L. Tregaskis and Dr. Ronald L. Mackley also Dr. Larry Duke.

Attorneys who have been born or have practiced in Heber City include William Buys, founder of the Wasatch Wave; A. C. Hatch, at one time judge of the Fourth Judicial District; James Hugh McDonald, Charles J. Wahlquist, William S. Willis, Chase Hatch, Jr., Livingston Clegg Montgomery, Edwin D. Hatch, Abe W. Turner, also a judge of

Dentist

in Mps New Mexican

Magatch Court